There is no sin that God will not forgive.

Your abortion is just one of the sins that nailed Jesus to the cross.

Just before He died, Jesus prayed for those who were crucifying him:

\[
\text{Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.} \\
\text{— Luke 23:34}
\]

He graciously wants to forgive you, too:

- Every woman who has had an abortion
- Every man who has asked a woman to abort their child
- Anyone involved in helping someone else obtain an abortion
- Anyone involved in performing abortions

To enjoy His forgiveness, you must:

- Confess abortion as sin
- Reject abortion as a way out of tough situations in the future
- And ask God for the forgiveness that He is so happy to give.

If you have never trusted Jesus to save you from all your sins, and never given Him control of your life, you must do this before doing anything else.

He will forgive your sin, give you a new and eternal life, and take away the penalty for sin — eternal death. In the Bible (Romans 8:1), God promises:

\[
\text{Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.}
\]
