

life matters

Abortion: What does God say?

Vol.14, No. 2

a publication of

Life Matters
WORLDWIDE

P.O. Box 3158

Grand Rapids, MI 49501

(616) 257-6800

1-800-968-6086

www.lifemattersww.org

staff@lifemattersww.org

PRO-CHOICE RELIGIOUS LEADERS believe God's word is silent on abortion. They say God equips each of us with the capacity to decide the matter for ourselves and conclude we can abort our children without fear of punishment.

Are they correct? Is the Bible silent on abortion? Has God left us without guidance on such an important subject, or are there principles we can apply?

although the act of ending pregnancy is not described within the pages of the Bible, more than one passage speaks of God having known individuals while they were still in their mothers' wombs. For instance, an angel told Hagar that God knew the personality traits and habits of her yet-unborn son Ishmael.¹ Similarly, when describing Jacob, God said his temperament was the same in adulthood as before birth.²

God's word doesn't differentiate between born and unborn individuals. The same Greek word for "babe" – brephos – is used of John the Baptist in the womb and Jesus in the manger.³ Furthermore, the One who knows the end from the beginning appointed Jeremiah and Paul as His spokesmen while they were in their embryonic or fetal stages.⁴ The third person of the Trinity indwells persons, not "blobs of tissue" or "clumps of cells;" John the Baptist is said to have been filled with the Holy Spirit from his mother's womb.⁵

Is God's concern for unborn human life limited to prophets and apostles who would play big roles in the redemption story? No. It was the Apostle Paul who told pagan Athenians that the great Creator gives life to all people.⁶ Who is to say which child living in the womb today is not destined for significance in God's kingdom?

It should surprise no one that God is intimately acquainted with pre-born human life since He creates it. Passages such as Job 12:10, Psalm 119:73 and 139:13-16 use words reminiscent of the Genesis 2:7 account of Adam's creation to describe His personal involvement in the formation of every human life.

Given God's knowledge of, and concern for, babies in the womb, it is difficult to justify abortion. Can it be okay to kill unborn children when Scripture says He forms them in the womb, enjoys a relationship with them, and has a plan for each one? When you add to that God's compassion for weak and defenseless people, should anyone who chooses abortion expect Him to look the other way?⁷

Abortion advocates admit there is life in the womb and that it is human, but insist it's not as valuable as a person already born. They don't deny abortion causes a death, but they're blind to God's estimation of unborn human life.

Proverbs 8:36 says, "all they that hate [wisdom] love death," therefore abortion is, at the very least, an unwise choice. It never honors God or brings Him pleasure. Attacks on His image are abhorrent... like attacking God Himself!⁸

As the Author of Life, God alone is sovereign over both life and death.⁹ Decisions affecting a person's death must be left to Him.

Examine what the Bible says about disputes between different classes of people – masters and slaves, men and women, Jews and Gentiles, rich and poor.¹⁰ Numerous passages describe situations in which one party is generally seen as a "person" in the eyes of society and the other is not. What does God say about "non-persons"?

He repeatedly argues against considering any human being as less than a person and gives no allowance for mistreating anyone. Slaves are persons. Women are persons. Gentiles are persons. Poor people are persons.

In short, Scripture demands we treat everyone impartially, as persons made in God's image. Indeed, to be a human being is to bear God's image... to be a person – at any stage of life.

What if you've had an abortion or helped someone obtain one? Does God forgive? Yes! When we confess our sins to Jesus Christ, He washes them away.¹¹

It is, of course, best to seek His help avoiding sexual sin and abortion rather than presuming upon His mercy afterward. As with all temptation, God promises a way of escape.¹²

THIS IS BY NO MEANS an exhaustive biblical survey on the sanctity of human life. Our web site compiles additional passages on finding forgiveness after an abortion, answering so-called exceptions to the prohibition of abortion, and suggesting Christ-like responses to people who may be tempted by abortion. Go to lifemattersww.org > Education > What does the Bible say about abortion?

REFERENCES: 1/ Genesis 16:11-12. 2/ Hosea 12:2-3. 3/ Luke 1:41, 44 and 2:16. 4/ Jeremiah 1:5 and Galatians 1:15. 5/ Lk. 1:15. 6/ Acts 17:25. 7/ Psalm 82:3-4; Proverbs 31:8-9; Isaiah 40:11; Matthew 18:10, 14; James 1:27. 8/ Gen. 9:5-6; Exodus 20:13, 21:22-24; Deuteronomy 19:11-13, 27:25; Prov. 6:16-19; Amos 1:13. 9/ Dt. 32:39; 1 Samuel 2:6; Job 10:8-12, 14:5. 10/ Leviticus 19:15, 24:22; Dt. 1:16-17, 24:17; Job 31:13-14; Prov. 14:31, 22:2; Jer. 22:3. 11/ Titus 3:3-7; 1 John 1:9. 12/ 1 Corinthians 10:13.

life matters

Abortion: What does God say?

Vol.14, No. 2

a publication of

Life Matters
WORLDWIDE

P.O. Box 3158

Grand Rapids, MI 49501

(616) 257-6800

1-800-968-6086

www.lifemattersww.org

staff@lifemattersww.org

PRO-CHOICE RELIGIOUS LEADERS believe God's word is silent on abortion. They say God equips each of us with the capacity to decide the matter for ourselves and conclude we can abort our children without fear of punishment.

Are they correct? Is the Bible silent on abortion? Has God left us without guidance on such an important subject, or are there principles we can apply?

although the act of ending pregnancy is not described within the pages of the Bible, more than one passage speaks of God having known individuals while they were still in their mothers' wombs. For instance, an angel told Hagar that God knew the personality traits and habits of her yet-unborn son Ishmael.¹ Similarly, when describing Jacob, God said his temperament was the same in adulthood as before birth.²

God's word doesn't differentiate between born and unborn individuals. The same Greek word for "babe" – brephos – is used of John the Baptist in the womb and Jesus in the manger.³ Furthermore, the One who knows the end from the beginning appointed Jeremiah and Paul as His spokesmen while they were in their embryonic or fetal stages.⁴ The third person of the Trinity indwells persons, not "blobs of tissue" or "clumps of cells;" John the Baptist is said to have been filled with the Holy Spirit from his mother's womb.⁵

Is God's concern for unborn human life limited to prophets and apostles who would play big roles in the redemption story? No. It was the Apostle Paul who told pagan Athenians that the great Creator gives life to all people.⁶ Who is to say which child living in the womb today is not destined for significance in God's kingdom?

It should surprise no one that God is intimately acquainted with pre-born human life since He creates it. Passages such as Job 12:10, Psalm 119:73 and 139:13-16 use words reminiscent of the Genesis 2:7 account of Adam's creation to describe His personal involvement in the formation of every human life.

Given God's knowledge of, and concern for, babies in the womb, it is difficult to justify abortion. Can it be okay to kill unborn children when Scripture says He forms them in the womb, enjoys a relationship with them, and has a plan for each one? When you add to that God's compassion for weak and defenseless people, should anyone who chooses abortion expect Him to look the other way?⁷

Abortion advocates admit there is life in the womb and that it is human, but insist it's not as valuable as a person already born. They don't deny abortion causes a death, but they're blind to God's estimation of unborn human life.

Proverbs 8:36 says, "all they that hate [wisdom] love death," therefore abortion is, at the very least, an unwise choice. It never honors God or brings Him pleasure. Attacks on His image are abhorrent... like attacking God Himself!⁸

As the Author of Life, God alone is sovereign over both life and death.⁹ Decisions affecting a person's death must be left to Him.

Examine what the Bible says about disputes between different classes of people – masters and slaves, men and women, Jews and Gentiles, rich and poor.¹⁰ Numerous passages describe situations in which one party is generally seen as a "person" in the eyes of society and the other is not. What does God say about "non-persons"?

He repeatedly argues against considering any human being as less than a person and gives no allowance for mistreating anyone. Slaves are persons. Women are persons. Gentiles are persons. Poor people are persons.

In short, Scripture demands we treat everyone impartially, as persons made in God's image. Indeed, to be a human being is to bear God's image... to be a person – at any stage of life.

What if you've had an abortion or helped someone obtain one? Does God forgive? Yes! When we confess our sins to Jesus Christ, He washes them away.¹¹

It is, of course, best to seek His help avoiding sexual sin and abortion rather than presuming upon His mercy afterward. As with all temptation, God promises a way of escape.¹²

THIS IS BY NO MEANS an exhaustive biblical survey on the sanctity of human life. Our web site compiles additional passages on finding forgiveness after an abortion, answering so-called exceptions to the prohibition of abortion, and suggesting Christ-like responses to people who may be tempted by abortion. Go to lifemattersww.org > Education > What does the Bible say about abortion?

REFERENCES: 1/ Genesis 16:11-12. 2/ Hosea 12:2-3. 3/ Luke 1:41, 44 and 2:16. 4/ Jeremiah 1:5 and Galatians 1:15. 5/ Lk. 1:15. 6/ Acts 17:25. 7/ Psalm 82:3-4; Proverbs 31:8-9; Isaiah 40:11; Matthew 18:10, 14; James 1:27. 8/ Gen. 9:5-6; Exodus 20:13, 21:22-24; Deuteronomy 19:11-13, 27:25; Prov. 6:16-19; Amos 1:13. 9/ Dt. 32:39; 1 Samuel 2:6; Job 10:8-12, 14:5. 10/ Leviticus 19:15, 24:22; Dt. 1:16-17, 24:17; Job 31:13-14; Prov. 14:31, 22:2; Jer. 22:3. 11/ Titus 3:3-7; 1 John 1:9. 12/ 1 Corinthians 10:13.

life matters

Abortion: What does God say?

Vol.14, No. 2

a publication of

Life Matters
WORLDWIDE

P.O. Box 3158

Grand Rapids, MI 49501

(616) 257-6800

1-800-968-6086

www.lifemattersww.org

staff@lifemattersww.org

PRO-CHOICE RELIGIOUS LEADERS believe God's word is silent on abortion. They say God equips each of us with the capacity to decide the matter for ourselves and conclude we can abort our children without fear of punishment.

Are they correct? Is the Bible silent on abortion? Has God left us without guidance on such an important subject, or are there principles we can apply?

although the act of ending pregnancy is not described within the pages of the Bible, more than one passage speaks of God having known individuals while they were still in their mothers' wombs. For instance, an angel told Hagar that God knew the personality traits and habits of her yet-unborn son Ishmael.¹ Similarly, when describing Jacob, God said his temperament was the same in adulthood as before birth.²

God's word doesn't differentiate between born and unborn individuals. The same Greek word for "babe" – brephos – is used of John the Baptist in the womb and Jesus in the manger.³ Furthermore, the One who knows the end from the beginning appointed Jeremiah and Paul as His spokesmen while they were in their embryonic or fetal stages.⁴ The third person of the Trinity indwells persons, not "blobs of tissue" or "clumps of cells;" John the Baptist is said to have been filled with the Holy Spirit from his mother's womb.⁵

Is God's concern for unborn human life limited to prophets and apostles who would play big roles in the redemption story? No. It was the Apostle Paul who told pagan Athenians that the great Creator gives life to all people.⁶ Who is to say which child living in the womb today is not destined for significance in God's kingdom?

It should surprise no one that God is intimately acquainted with pre-born human life since He creates it. Passages such as Job 12:10, Psalm 119:73 and 139:13-16 use words reminiscent of the Genesis 2:7 account of Adam's creation to describe His personal involvement in the formation of every human life.

Given God's knowledge of, and concern for, babies in the womb, it is difficult to justify abortion. Can it be okay to kill unborn children when Scripture says He forms them in the womb, enjoys a relationship with them, and has a plan for each one? When you add to that God's compassion for weak and defenseless people, should anyone who chooses abortion expect Him to look the other way?⁷

Abortion advocates admit there is life in the womb and that it is human, but insist it's not as valuable as a person already born. They don't deny abortion causes a death, but they're blind to God's estimation of unborn human life.

Proverbs 8:36 says, "all they that hate [wisdom] love death," therefore abortion is, at the very least, an unwise choice. It never honors God or brings Him pleasure. Attacks on His image are abhorrent... like attacking God Himself!⁸

As the Author of Life, God alone is sovereign over both life and death.⁹ Decisions affecting a person's death must be left to Him.

Examine what the Bible says about disputes between different classes of people – masters and slaves, men and women, Jews and Gentiles, rich and poor.¹⁰ Numerous passages describe situations in which one party is generally seen as a "person" in the eyes of society and the other is not. What does God say about "non-persons"?

He repeatedly argues against considering any human being as less than a person and gives no allowance for mistreating anyone. Slaves are persons. Women are persons. Gentiles are persons. Poor people are persons.

In short, Scripture demands we treat everyone impartially, as persons made in God's image. Indeed, to be a human being is to bear God's image... to be a person – at any stage of life.

What if you've had an abortion or helped someone obtain one? Does God forgive? Yes! When we confess our sins to Jesus Christ, He washes them away.¹¹

It is, of course, best to seek His help avoiding sexual sin and abortion rather than presuming upon His mercy afterward. As with all temptation, God promises a way of escape.¹²

THIS IS BY NO MEANS an exhaustive biblical survey on the sanctity of human life. Our web site compiles additional passages on finding forgiveness after an abortion, answering so-called exceptions to the prohibition of abortion, and suggesting Christ-like responses to people who may be tempted by abortion. Go to lifemattersww.org > Education > What does the Bible say about abortion?

REFERENCES: 1/ Genesis 16:11-12. 2/ Hosea 12:2-3. 3/ Luke 1:41, 44 and 2:16. 4/ Jeremiah 1:5 and Galatians 1:15. 5/ Lk. 1:15. 6/ Acts 17:25. 7/ Psalm 82:3-4; Proverbs 31:8-9; Isaiah 40:11; Matthew 18:10, 14; James 1:27. 8/ Gen. 9:5-6; Exodus 20:13, 21:22-24; Deuteronomy 19:11-13, 27:25; Prov. 6:16-19; Amos 1:13. 9/ Dt. 32:39; 1 Samuel 2:6; Job 10:8-12, 14:5. 10/ Leviticus 19:15, 24:22; Dt. 1:16-17, 24:17; Job 31:13-14; Prov. 14:31, 22:2; Jer. 22:3. 11/ Titus 3:3-7; 1 John 1:9. 12/ 1 Corinthians 10:13.

life matters

Abortion: What does God say?

Vol.14, No. 2

a publication of

Life Matters
WORLDWIDE

P.O. Box 3158

Grand Rapids, MI 49501

(616) 257-6800

1-800-968-6086

www.lifemattersww.org

staff@lifemattersww.org

PRO-CHOICE RELIGIOUS LEADERS believe God's word is silent on abortion. They say God equips each of us with the capacity to decide the matter for ourselves and conclude we can abort our children without fear of punishment.

Are they correct? Is the Bible silent on abortion? Has God left us without guidance on such an important subject, or are there principles we can apply?

although the act of ending pregnancy is not described within the pages of the Bible, more than one passage speaks of God having known individuals while they were still in their mothers' wombs. For instance, an angel told Hagar that God knew the personality traits and habits of her yet-unborn son Ishmael.¹ Similarly, when describing Jacob, God said his temperament was the same in adulthood as before birth.²

God's word doesn't differentiate between born and unborn individuals. The same Greek word for "babe" – brephos – is used of John the Baptist in the womb and Jesus in the manger.³ Furthermore, the One who knows the end from the beginning appointed Jeremiah and Paul as His spokesmen while they were in their embryonic or fetal stages.⁴ The third person of the Trinity indwells persons, not "blobs of tissue" or "clumps of cells;" John the Baptist is said to have been filled with the Holy Spirit from his mother's womb.⁵

Is God's concern for unborn human life limited to prophets and apostles who would play big roles in the redemption story? No. It was the Apostle Paul who told pagan Athenians that the great Creator gives life to all people.⁶ Who is to say which child living in the womb today is not destined for significance in God's kingdom?

It should surprise no one that God is intimately acquainted with pre-born human life since He creates it. Passages such as Job 12:10, Psalm 119:73 and 139:13-16 use words reminiscent of the Genesis 2:7 account of Adam's creation to describe His personal involvement in the formation of every human life.

Given God's knowledge of, and concern for, babies in the womb, it is difficult to justify abortion. Can it be okay to kill unborn children when Scripture says He forms them in the womb, enjoys a relationship with them, and has a plan for each one? When you add to that God's compassion for weak and defenseless people, should anyone who chooses abortion expect Him to look the other way?⁷

Abortion advocates admit there is life in the womb and that it is human, but insist it's not as valuable as a person already born. They don't deny abortion causes a death, but they're blind to God's estimation of unborn human life.

Proverbs 8:36 says, "all they that hate [wisdom] love death," therefore abortion is, at the very least, an unwise choice. It never honors God or brings Him pleasure. Attacks on His image are abhorrent... like attacking God Himself!⁸

As the Author of Life, God alone is sovereign over both life and death.⁹ Decisions affecting a person's death must be left to Him.

Examine what the Bible says about disputes between different classes of people – masters and slaves, men and women, Jews and Gentiles, rich and poor.¹⁰ Numerous passages describe situations in which one party is generally seen as a "person" in the eyes of society and the other is not. What does God say about "non-persons"?

He repeatedly argues against considering any human being as less than a person and gives no allowance for mistreating anyone. Slaves are persons. Women are persons. Gentiles are persons. Poor people are persons.

In short, Scripture demands we treat everyone impartially, as persons made in God's image. Indeed, to be a human being is to bear God's image... to be a person – at any stage of life.

What if you've had an abortion or helped someone obtain one? Does God forgive? Yes! When we confess our sins to Jesus Christ, He washes them away.¹¹

It is, of course, best to seek His help avoiding sexual sin and abortion rather than presuming upon His mercy afterward. As with all temptation, God promises a way of escape.¹²

THIS IS BY NO MEANS an exhaustive biblical survey on the sanctity of human life. Our web site compiles additional passages on finding forgiveness after an abortion, answering so-called exceptions to the prohibition of abortion, and suggesting Christ-like responses to people who may be tempted by abortion. Go to lifemattersww.org > Education > What does the Bible say about abortion?

REFERENCES: 1/ Genesis 16:11-12. 2/ Hosea 12:2-3. 3/ Luke 1:41, 44 and 2:16. 4/ Jeremiah 1:5 and Galatians 1:15. 5/ Lk. 1:15. 6/ Acts 17:25. 7/ Psalm 82:3-4; Proverbs 31:8-9; Isaiah 40:11; Matthew 18:10, 14; James 1:27. 8/ Gen. 9:5-6; Exodus 20:13, 21:22-24; Deuteronomy 19:11-13, 27:25; Prov. 6:16-19; Amos 1:13. 9/ Dt. 32:39; 1 Samuel 2:6; Job 10:8-12, 14:5. 10/ Leviticus 19:15, 24:22; Dt. 1:16-17, 24:17; Job 31:13-14; Prov. 14:31, 22:2; Jer. 22:3. 11/ Titus 3:3-7; 1 John 1:9. 12/ 1 Corinthians 10:13.